How great is the love the Father has lavished on us, that we should be called the children of God! And that is what we are!

(1 John 3:1, NIV)

Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and all nations on earth will be blessed through him.

(Genesis 18:18, NIV)

I will surely bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed...

(Genesis 22:17-18, NIV)

In other words, it is not the natural children who are God's children, but it is the children of the promise who are regarded as Abraham's offspring.

(Romans 9:8, NIV)

For this reason Christ is the mediator of a new covenant, that those who are called may receive the promised eternal inheritance—now that he has died as a ransom to set them free from the sins committed under the first covenant.
