Interpretation

1. What does it mean and how did sin enter the world through one man?
2. How does sin and death pass to subsequent generations?
3. Does God hold me accountable for Adam's sin or my own?

Genesis 2:17; 3:14-19

*When tempted, no one should say, "God is tempting me." For God cannot be tempted by evil, nor does he tempt anyone; but each one is tempted when, by his own evil desire, he is dragged away and enticed. Then, after desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is full-grown, gives birth to death.

*Surely I was sinful at birth, sinful from the time my mother conceived me.

*All of us also lived among them at one time, gratifying the cravings of our sinful nature and following its desires and thoughts. Like the rest, we were by nature objects of wrath.
(Ephesians 2:3, NIV)*
