

From One to Many

Romans 5:12-21

Jon Vinter – March 9, 2008

Am I condemned for Adam's sin?

How does Adam's pattern make justification possible?

Related Scripture

From one man he made every nation of men, that they should inhabit the whole earth; and he determined the times set for them and the exact places where they should live.

(Acts 17:26, NIV)

See Joshua chapter 7

For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?

(2 Corinthians 6:14, NIV)

Christ Jesus: ⁶Who, being in very nature^{6a} God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, ⁷but made himself nothing, taking the very nature^{6a} of a servant, being made in human likeness. ⁸And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to death—even death on a cross!

(Philippians 2:5-8, NIV)

¹⁷Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

(2 Corinthians 5:17, NIV)

⁹But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

¹⁰Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy.
